Last week was busy, busy, busy. Your child finished many projects and was able to take them home. We hope you and your child enjoyed his/her native American necklace as well as the tom-tom drum. Dream catchers are hanging in the hallway and you will be able to take those home Monday evening. If you're not able to make it to PJ and POP-CORN reading night, we'll send it home on Tuesday.

PJ's and POPCORN....

Monday Nov. 23rd

6:30-8:00

EVERYONE is encouraged to wear pajamas for this event. Even parents!!!!

We are thankful to you for entrusting your child to us. It is a joy for us to be able to work with each and every child. We love them ALL! :) Both of us generally go home at night with sore jaws because we clench our jaws when smiling so much! Does that make sense to you? Not only do we hope to help your child grow and learn, but we know that they will also teach us things along the way. For instance we learned that one of the little ones grandpas says that bananas are 'monkey pickles'! That was a new one for both of us. We're sure to use it again with others. :)

While at home these next few days make a Bird Feeder!!

Get a plastic gallon milk jug. Cut a large opening on one side. Your child can decorate the milk jug with stickers or markers. Put bird seed in it. Tie a string through the handle and hang it from a tree branch or put it on a window sill or fence. Have fun watching the birds. Can you recognize different birds? What colors are they?
