

BULLYING

Middle school parents and girls (grades 6-8) are invited to attend a workshop to learn how to navigate the "MAZE" of middle school. Topics covered include bullying, cliques, and valuable tips taken from Girl Scout's national leadership curriculum.

February 29, 2012
6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Kalamazoo Regional Office
601 W. Maple St., Kalamazoo, MI

A $20 fee covers the cost of the workshop admission for parents and girls plus girls will become a registered Girl Scout with access to our premier programming, curriculum, and accredited and licensed camps!

To RSVP and if you have questions please contact Michelle Jackson-Long mjlong@gshom.org (269) 532-7041.

girl scouts
heart of michigan